HOW IT FEELS TO BE A FRESHMAN

What was your first

Impression of
I WAS A LITTLE INTIMIDATED, UIW?
BUT WALKING AROUND AND THE TOUR
MADE IT FEEL HOMEY.

How did your perception change
now living on campus?

IT' NOT AS INTIMIDATED AS IT USED TO BE,
NOW I KNOW WHAT I'M DOING.

What surprised you
the most about UIW?

PEOPLE ARE SUPER FRIENDLY! SOME PEOPLE JUST COME UP TO YOU AND START TALKING.

What is your best UIW
experience so far?

GETTING ALONG WITH MY WITH MY ROOMMATES, WE DO A LOT TOGETHER.

Being a Freshman now, what is one piece of advice you would give to another freshman, or new freshman coming in next year?

DON'T BE AFRAID TO MAKE FRIENDS OR TALK TO PEOPLE.

UIW ADMISSIONS STUDENT AMBASSADORS

BY GIANNA VELASQUEZ

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Cardinal Experience Weekend (CEW) takes place Sunday November 10th - Monday November 11th. Prospective students get the opportunity to attend Preview Day on Sunday where they meet faculty from all Academic majors, Professional Schools, financial aid, athletics, student organizations and more. Our Student Ambassadors help facilitate this event, sit on student panels, and interact with prospective students and their families. The Overnighter portion of CEW is Sunday night through Monday morning. Prospective students get to experience life as a Cardinal by engaging in activities in the evening, spend the night with current UIW students in a dorm and attend classes the next day. Our Student Ambassadors attend our evening activities, host the students in their dorms overnight and bring them through their classes Monday morning.

The purpose of this student organization is to assist the Office of Admissions in recruitment and retention, to foster a sense of community among students and visitors, and to act as official representatives of the University of the Incarnate Word and the community at large. Student Ambassadors work closely with the Office of Admissions at various Recruiting Events, including our largest event of the Semester: Cardinal Experience Weekend.
