

First Time in College (FTIC) Facts

This view shows the First Time in College (FTIC) student profile for Fall 2022. These facts represent all reportable FTIC students at the main campus and in the School of Professional Studies. The data is taken from the September 2022 census capture. An FTIC student is defined by IPEDS as a student attending any institution for the first time at the undergraduate level. This includes students enrolled in the fall term who attended college for the first time in the prior summer term and students who entered with advanced standing (college credits earned before graduation from high school).
