General Assembly

Student Government Association

September 14, 2011

- Approving Student Organizations: Orgs really need to voice their opinion, and be proactive voters.
- A possible different Procedure: Making voting anonymous
- Dean Moore stated: To let the student orgs know about the new organizations wanting to be approved ahead of time than just the SGA representatives voting the day of General Assembly. That way the org can discuss and get reps ready to vote on following General Assembly day.
