CLASS OF 2029

At the University of the Incarnate Word, leadership is defined through action, service, and purpose. Students continue to step forward in meaningful ways, showing that impact comes from consistency and commitment.

Jasmine Holmes, a P1 Class Senator for the Class of 2029 in the Feik School of Pharmacy, exemplifies this through her service. From adopting a highway to actively engaging in her community, she lives out her motto, "Called to serve, but driven to care."

Her work reflects the values that shape the UIW experience—responsibility, respect, and a dedication to making a difference. Jasmine's leadership is a reminder that real impact starts with simply choosing to show up.

"I filled out the 1K Survey because I wanted change. Now I feel heard."

SGA WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU

CARDINALS SHOWED UP IN A BIG WAY—students lined up, took the 1K Survey, and enjoyed Free Italian Ice as a small thank-you for making their voices heard. This initiative is all about participation, feedback, and driving meaningful change across campus.

If you missed it, don't worry—there's another opportunity next Tuesday, 21 April, complete the survey, grab a free treat, and be part of shaping the student experience at the University of the Incarnate Word.
